RE: Application for internship

Dear Mr. Alphonse,

I am writing to express my interest in an internship position mostly in sales and marketing department, as I have seen your productivity at different websites, especially linkedin. I am currently a first-year student at the African Leadership University, pursuing a B.Sc. (Hons) in Entrepreneurial Leadership. I am passionate about empowering communities through innovative business solutions, and I believe that this internship would provide me with valuable experience to further develop my skills in tourism area.

During my time as a Teaching Assistant at G.S Paysannat LC in Kirehe, I not only taught entrepreneurship but also supported students in overcoming academic challenges. This role honed my public speaking and problem-solving skills, and reinforced my commitment to ethical leadership. Additionally, as a student's coach, I focused on enhancing English proficiency, demonstrating my dedication to collaboration and effective communication.

I have actively participated in workshops that developed my technical skills, including data visualisation and time management strategies. These experiences, combined with my coursework, have equipped me with a strong foundation in creative and critical thinking, which I believe is essential for tackling real-world business challenges.

I am particularly drawn to First Class Tours because of the First Class Tours main goal of sustainable development of a country through tourism. I am eager to contribute my enthusiasm and skills to your team while gaining hands-on experience in a dynamic environment.

I look forward to the possibility of discussing how I can contribute to your team and learn from your esteemed organisation. I will be waiting for your positive response.

Warm regards,

Annick Irangabiye
