

Don Divin Niyukuri
Rwanda, Kigali
d.niyukuri@alustudent.com
0793859722

18th, Oct 2024

Hiring Manager
First Class Tours

Subject: Application for Internship at First Class Tours

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am thrilled to apply for the internship position at First Class Tours. Your mission to unleash the wild side in every traveller resonates deeply with my passion for exploring the unknown and creating transformative experiences.

As a Bachelor's student in Entrepreneurial Leadership at the African Leadership University with the mission that under the wildlife Conservation, I bring a unique blend of creativity, strategic thinking, and a deep love for adventure. My experiences in leading projects that empower communities through innovative solutions have honed my ability to push boundaries and redefine possibilities, much like your company's vision.

I am particularly inspired by your commitment to creating unforgettable memories in unexpected places. I understand the power of blending spontaneity with meticulous planning to deliver unique adventures.

Joining First Class Tours would be an incredible opportunity to contribute my skills in tourism development while learning from a team that shares my passion for redefining adventure. I am eager to support your mission and help create experiences that leave a lasting impact on travellers.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to First Class Tours and would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with your vision.

Warm regards,
Don Divin.