RE: Application for Tour Operator Internship

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the Tour Operator Internship in First Class Tours that you recently advertised on LinkedIn. As a lover of travel and having worked in the travel industry, I believe that a targeted internship position will enable me to help your esteemed company to deliver quality services to clients.

I bring expertise in itinerary planning, customer service, and ensuring seamless travel and tour experiences, fostering client loyalty in a dynamic industry. My genuine enthusiasm for travel keeps me updated on trends and inspires me to share its transformative potential, making me a passionate advocate for unforgettable journeys.

In many ways I am sure that love for travelling, commitment to customer service, and my experience will greatly benefit First Class Tours Company. I would appreciate an opportunity to explain how my abilities and reported achievements will benefit your company and how I can help you achieve further success.

I would like to thank you for having read through my application and look forward to discussing my skills and abilities with you. I would love the opportunity for me to be part of your team and be a part of making the fantastic travel experiences at First Class Tours .

Warm regards,

Isimbi Joyau Landrine
