RE: Application for an internship as a tour consultant

Dear Mr Alphonse,

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Todisoa Olivia Razakarivony, and I am a student at the African Leadership University in Rwanda. I am excited to apply for the Tour Consultant Internship at First Class Tours. Traveling and meeting new people have always inspired me, and I believe this opportunity is a perfect fit for my interests and skills.

Growing up in Madagascar, I saw how travel can connect people and help them understand different cultures. Now, living in Rwanda, I've experienced the beauty of this country and its welcoming people. I am thrilled at the idea of helping others discover such wonderful places and create unforgettable memories.

I have experience working with people from different backgrounds through my role as the secretary of the Eucharistic Youth Movement. I learned how to stay organized, communicate clearly, and help create meaningful experiences. These skills, along with my enthusiasm for learning and exploring, make me eager to contribute to your team.

What excites me most about this internship is the chance to combine my love for travel with creating incredible experiences for others. I am eager to learn how to design travel plans, take care of customers, and make every trip memorable.

Thank you for considering my application. I would love the chance to discuss how I can contribute to First Class Tours and learn from your amazing team I look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Todisoa Olivia RAZAKARIVONY
